

Fees for Electrical Inspections

Electrical inspection fees are based upon the documented total dollar value of the work to be performed, including labor and material costs regardless of the purchaser. It is the responsibility of the person who owns or is responsible for the proposed work to provide the Electrical Division with the complete cost the electrical installation, alteration, or repair, as well as a copy of the electrical contract, if any.

A final certificate of compliance shall not be issued until all applicable inspection fees are paid.
