Frequently Asked Questions

Q: Can anyone purchase a homeowner's permit to do plumbing?

A: Permits to construct, install or alter plumbing, sewerage or drainage may be issued to homeowners who desire to install plumbing in homes actually occupied by them or in a home to be constructed by them for their own personal residential use, if all the following requirements are met:

- Application is made for the permit prior to the beginning of the work.
- The homeowner files with his application an affidavit stating that he shall abide by the terms of this section.
- All work shall be performed in compliance with the state plumbing code.
- All the work shall be personally performed by the owner.
- Only one homeowner permit for construction of a new home shall be issued to an individual in a five-year period.
